

S.O.A.R

Safety, Ownership, Attitude, and Respect

	Safety	Ownership	Attitude	Respect
Classroom	Follow instructions the first time they are given Maintain clear work/floor space Handle materials with care	Come to class on time, prepared with materials Actively participate Take responsibility for your own actions and choices	Be positive Do your best Help your neighbor as needed	Support your peers ideas, opinions and contributions Show empathy Use appropriate tone and volume when speaking
Hallway	Maintain clean hallways and clear locker space Keep hands and feet to oneself at all times Move in an orderly manner	Be on time to class Ensure you have needed materials for class	Help others when needed Be positive Stay calm	Share space with others Take care of school and personal property Use appropriate tone and volume when speaking
Cafeteria	Move in an orderly manner Keep table and floor area clean Keep floor space clear Listen and follow directions as they are given	Clean up your space; including the table, tray and floor space Help keep the cafeteria clean for other users	Walk to the cafeteria Wait patiently in line Make your clean up a team effort	Allow others to sit with you (up to 12 total at each table) Keep voice volume down to moderate level Follow supervisor instructions
Bus	Remain seated at all times Follow bus drivers directions Keep personal items out of aisle Communicate safety concerns with driver and EBF Office Staff	Clean up your seat and floor area Gather personal belongings	Be polite to classmates and driver Remain calm Assist your neighbor in cleaning up	Use appropriate language, volume and tone Be aware of others space and personal belongings
Athletic Events	Move in a safe manner Be aware of all visitors to the event	Please dispose of all trash Recycle when appropriate Show school spirit	Be polite to all visitors Demonstrate good sportsmanship Help others with their trash and recyclables	Use good judgment when making choices Be aware of others and the physical environment Treat officials appropriately
Bathroom/Locker Rooms	Report problems to staff Use facilities appropriately Report broken or malfunctioning items to the office	Clean up after yourself Wash hands Follow time guidelines (between class and in PE/Cross training)	Use consideration for others and their property Maintain clean facilities for all to use	Use appropriate language Maintain privacy of other patrons Maintain clean facilities
Technology	Bring personal issues regarding online disputes to the attention of an adult Restrict contact via social media to only people you know	Follow instructions of teacher as they are given Visit only the school or district approved websites Keep private information PRIVATE	If knowledgeable, assist others with internet navigation Treat all EBF computers as if they were your own	Only speak or write of others in a positive way Use appropriate language and images when using computer programs

EBF Rockets SOAR – Supporting Others and Acting Responsibly

“Research indicates that people experiencing positive emotions perceive more options when solving problems and generally perform better overall.”

Dr. David Rock,
NeuroLeadership
Institute

edutopia.org